APPENDIX L.

THE GOODWINS OF AUGUSTA COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

For suggestions as to the parentage of Joseph Goodwin of Augusta county, see the records of Edward Goodwin, ancestor of the Goodwins of Clark county, Ind., which are given later in this publication.

APPENDIXES N, O and P.

MARYLAND GOODWINS.

For additional data of the Goodwin families in Maryland, see the records printed hereafter in this publication, contributed by Mr. Warren S. Ely, of Doylestown, Pa. The William Goodwin of Carroll county, Md. (Appendix N), seems to be the William Goodwin born in Baltimore county in 1744, eldest son of Benjamin and Hannah (Urghuart) Goodwin.

APPENDIX X.

Ephraim Goodwin was born in 1823. I have not been able to get the name of his first wife or of his father, but I am told that he was a relative of the Goodwins of Preble county, O. His descendants reside in Danville, Ill.

He had three wives. He married, third, Mrs. Sarah Maria (Downs) Melton, born 1837 in Chester, or Coles, county, Ill., a daughter of James and Mary Ann (Reagan) Downs. Child by first wife: i. Mary Elizabeth, died —. Children by second wife: ii. Hannah, married Thomas Dubre; iii. John Charles Fremont, married Lucy M. —; iv. Acshah, married George Clements. Children by third wife: v. Ellett, died young; vi. Ernest Stephen, married Nora Fenton; vii. Francis Ephraim, born March 27, 1872; viii. Allan Holliday, born Feb. 21, 1878.

APPENDIX Y.

PROBABLE DESCENDANTS OF ROBERT GOODWIN.

The researches of Dr. Tyler, showing that Robert, eldest son of Major James, died without issue, and that the Robert who married Anne — was a son of Major James by his second marriage, compel us to expunge this Appendix entirely. The John Goodwin who married Mary Elliot could not have been this Robert's son, but was perhaps a son of Mathew; and Robert, who married Anne, was himself the patron of a school in 1711, and was the father of the Robert, born in 1703, instead of being the grandfather of that Robert, as supposed in this Appendix.

NOTES.

All the data contributed by Dr. Tyler in the 1897 Supplement can be applied to the various members of the family, except his notes at bottom of Page 153.

“John Goodwin, orphan of Peter

“Goodwin, in account with John

“Goodwin his Guardian, mentions

“suit vs. my brother, James Goodwin.”

1748.

I can find no Peter Goodwin having children, John and James, except Peter, son of Major James, entirely too old to answer the requirements here. If John was settling with his guardian in 1748, then John's birth must have been around 1727, and his father Peter was born evidently around 1705, and was a grandson of Major James. I cannot find any Peter of that age, and have shown Peter as a probable son of Mathew on page 4.
